MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

We, the undersigned, representing Meat Cutters Local 73 and the Kohl Company, agree that the Employers' "Final Proposal" submitted to Local 73 on May 18, 1972, with the following changes will represent a complete agreement as it relates to our current negotiations.

That to Item #1 of the Employers' Proposal the following be added:

"If any male employee in the market is satisfied with his scheduled hours even if the differential exceeds the four (4) hour maximum, this arrangement would not constitute a violation of this section."

That in Item #12 of the Employers' Proposal that A, the $50.50 be changed to $47.50 and B, that the Pension Contribution be increased to $45.00 starting the First of the Month following ratification.

Also, in Item #13, "Wages" in attached Appendix A, that the rates of increase for all classifications be reduced by 2¢ with the exception of Part-time Delicatessen Clerks.

And further, that commencing with the first Sunday after ratification, that all work performed on Sundays be outside of the basic work week.
